SERVANTS

And the things you
have heard me say in
the presence of
many witnesses

PREPARING SERVANTS

entrust to reliable
men who will also be qualified to teach
others. 2 Tim. 2:2

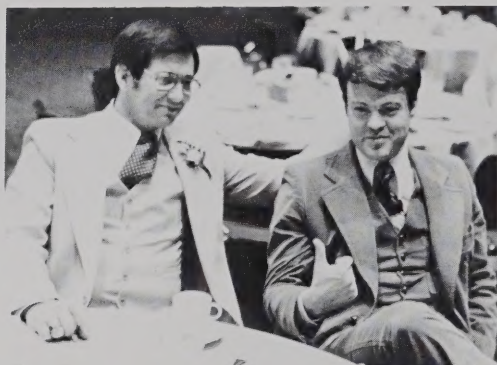

TO PRODUCE SERVANTS

... to prepare God's people for works of
service, so that the body of Christ may be built up. Eph. 4:12

DEDICATION

Dr. Charles R. Smith

We dedicate the 1978-79 Grace Theological Seminary yearbook to the "anti-gap chap." He frequently talks about baloney, billy goats and biscuits. He once REPORTEDLY dined with a "chief big-shot angel" at a local "steak-joint" to discuss the merits of infralapsarianism and supraelectionism. When he is amazed or surprised, "SWANEE!!" is often his only response.

Dr. Charles R. Smith — we honor you as a godly scholar who consistently walks in the way commanded by Paul the apostle.

Preach the Word;
be prepared in season and out of
season;
correct, rebuke and encourage —
with great patience and careful instruction.

— 2 Timothy 4:2

INTRODUCTION

Servants . . .

Consider it, if you will, a church library.

A seminary, for all its independent existence, cannot supplant the local church as the place of teaching. Rather, it is a repository of information and experience, a storehouse existing to serve the local church.

As a library supplies data not found elsewhere, so the seminary teachers supply the results of their special studies and experiences to members of the local church who seek to further, in special ways, the work of the church.

I give you sound learning, so do not forsake my teaching.... Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life.

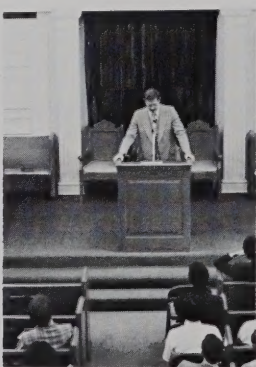

— Proverbs 4:2,13

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful ... so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

— 2 Timothy 3:16,17

... to produce servants

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.

— Matthew 28:19,20

Executing this command takes a number of forms. Some are more conventional, "traditional" (and honored both by tradition and by the Word of God) ...

... to produce servants

... while others are less conventional, or not conventional at all. Yet they all have the same purpose — they are avenues whereby members of the local church can bring people to baptism and teach them.

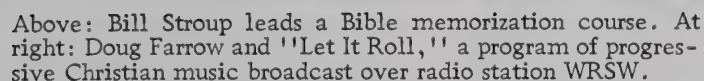

Recent student/alumni writings include books, shown here, by David Nicholas, David Hocking, Kenneth Gangel, George Zeller, Paul Lee Tan, and David Jeremiah. Books are also published by Franklin Choate (Alpha Publications) and by James Eisenbraun (Eisenbrauns). Faculty writings include works by Dr. Whitcomb, Dr. Kent, Dr. Davis, and Prof. Mayhue.

At left: Charles Morrissey delivers a class lecture. Above: Brian Roseborough trains a Timothy Team, a squad of college- and seminary-age people who in turn train youth in an area Grace Brethren church to serve actively in that church.

FACULTY

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it.

— 2 Timothy 3:14

He also told them this parable: "Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher."

— Luke 6:39, 40

We who teach will be judged more strictly.

ACTIVITY

Chapel

Sometimes they come to talk shop, sometimes they come to encourage from the Scriptures; always they come to refresh and sharpen us.

Retreat

Even Jesus and His disciples needed to recuperate from work every now and then (Mark 6:31).

Celebration

Faculty festivity marked November 10, 1978, the 80th birthday of Dr. Homer A. Kent, Sr. — pastor, author, church historian, and honored teacher.

The days of the blameless are known to the LORD, and their inheritance will endure forever.

— Psalm 37:18

Grace Bible Conference

Here students and alumni meet to hear the Word of God proclaimed and applied to their ministries.

Laurels

We seek the eternal reward; but let us give praise when we witness excellence.

1979 awards (above, from left): Ken Bickel, Faculty Award; Kim Cone, Church History; David Workman, Expository Preaching; Paul Apple, Systematic Theology; Jeff Carroll, Public Reading of Scripture, Award to Student Body Chaplain; Jim Colledge, Award to Student Body President; David Dockery, New Testament; Bob Fetterhoff, Missions; Mark Keough, Christian Education; Jeff Norton, Old Testament. 1979 preaching finalists (left): Van Cochran, David Workman, Bob Gray, Ted Legg

1978 awards: Bob Arenobine, Church History; Glenn Rider, New Testament; Trevor Craigen, Faculty Award, Systematic Theology, Public Reading of Scripture; Ron Williams, Expository Preaching; Wayne Hannah, Missions; Ersilia Zott, Old Testament. Not pictured: Matt Ristuccia, Award to Student Body President; Daryle Emch, Award to Student Body Chaplain

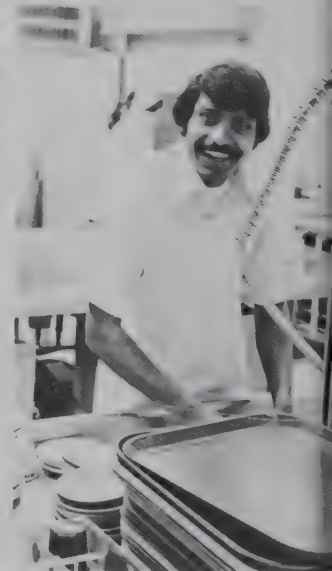

"Routine"

And they went on their way rejoicing ...

Dr. Whitcomb, by A.W. Davis; Katie and Mike Redding.
Bottom row: Lois Gillette;
Prof. Sproule

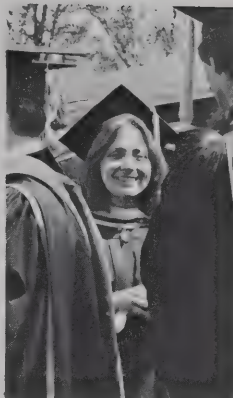

Graduation

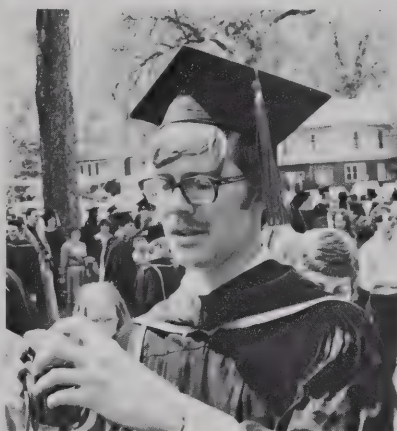

The Billy Sunday Tabernacle is normally a placid, quiet place. Until mid-May, when it goes just a little bit berserk ...

At left: Weston W. Fields, Th.D.; Barbara Lepore. Second row: Prof. Ashman; Ted Witmer. Third row: Mr. and Mrs. John W. Zielasko, Th.M. in Missions; Cheryl Kaufman and entourage

So ends the prologue.

For most, the actual work of making disciples is yet to come. What form it will take and how it will succeed depend upon our Lord's program and upon your prayers, which we need and for which we earnestly ask.

But for now, at least, a time of preparation is over. The plot is predestined, and a few of the main characters have been introduced. Now the story begins.

And surely I will be with you always, to the very end of the age.

— Matthew 28:20

... and soon all is calm once more.

APPRECIATION

Special thanks are due:

To Mr. Cramer and the Development Department, for their help in gathering ideas and in finding special photographs.

To Prof. Myron Yeager of Grace College, who was always ready with support and advice from his yearbook experience.

To Dr. Whitcomb, by whose courtesy the Kyle-Albright Expedition pictures appear.

To Ted Witmer, not only for taking photographs but also for the discussions that helped to shape this book.

To Bill Stroup, Doug Courter, and Jon Rumley, who ably wielded their cameras at graduation and retreat.

To Roemer McPhee, who piloted an unforgettable venture into aerial photography.

To Howard Downing, for his editorial example, for past confidence, and maybe for a photo or two.

To all those pictured herein, for their graciousness in willingly being photographed. (Rarely is it easy to believe the cameraman is actually on your side!)

Especially to Prof. Mayhue — pastor, advisor, friend, and general-purpose rascal — who, besides writing the Dedication, provided the principles, authority, and constant encouragement by which work on this project was scheduled and completed.

And most importantly to the Lord Jesus Christ, under whose aegis all this took place, and by whose sovereign plan the editor learned and the book saw print. May you who read go on to know better His glories.

Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior
Jesus Christ.

To him be glory
both now and forever!

Amen.
